

COLONS AND SEMICOLONS

Put a checkmark next to the sentence using the colon or semicolon correctly.

1

Four football players were awarded scholarships: Smith, O'Leary, Edwards, and Murphy.

Four football players were awarded scholarships: they are talented, both athletically and academically.

2

It was just as she feared; a broken vase, spilled water, muddy paw prints.

It was just as she feared; the puppy had ransacked the living room.

3

During our vacation, we are traveling to Branson, Missouri; Eureka Springs, Arkansas; and Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

During our vacation, we are traveling to three states; Missouri, Arkansas, and Oklahoma.

4

The coach chose Patrick to throw the ball; Travis to catch the ball; and Harrison to kick the ball.

The coach chose Patrick, who is excellent at throwing the ball; Travis, who never fails to catch the ball; and Harrison, who kicks the ball with great accuracy.

