

BECOME A RHYME MASTER!

Read the poem “Coloring Magic” by Diana Murray.

My coloring book
has a whole lot to say.
“Make me pink!” whines the hippo.
“Not boring old gray.”

“Give us spots!” roar the lions.
“We’re feeling too plain.”
“We need far more color,”
the zebras complain.

The giraffe begs, “Oh please!
Won’t you make me sky blue?”
With my crayons, I make all their wishes come true!

Write rhyming words for the following.

book: _____

pink: _____

blue: _____

spots: _____

gray: _____

tree: _____

