

COMPARE AND CONTRAST: A STANZA AND A PARAGRAPH

Identify which of these is a stanza and which is a paragraph.

Nature's Wonder

In the old oak forest, birds sing,
Their songs echo, a beautiful thing.

Sunlight shines through the trees' shade,
In this peaceful place, nature's wonders are made.

The Oak Forest

Near the old oak forest, a small stream passes through the meadow, shining in the sunlight. Wildflowers sway in the gentle breeze, painting the landscape with splashes of color. It's a quiet spot where the beauty of nature unfolds.

Compare and contrast a paragraph and a stanza and fill in the diagram.
