

LET'S GO TO THE THEATER!

This is a conversation between you and your mom about you wanting to go to the theater and watching a movie you like. Complete the missing dialogues from your point of view.

You

But we saw the first part in the theater too!

You have already seen a movie this month.

You

You can watch it when it comes on TV.

You

Another one of your favorite movies is coming out next week. You would want to watch that too, wouldn't you?

You

All right. If you really want to watch it that much, we can book the show for tonight.
