

CURSIVE WRITING: TONGUE TWISTERS

Practice your handwriting by writing these tongue twisters.

She sells seashells.

Handwriting practice lines for the first tongue twister, consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Peter Piper picked peppers.

Handwriting practice lines for the second tongue twister, consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Red lorry, yellow lorry.

Handwriting practice lines for the third tongue twister, consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Betty Botter bought butter.

Handwriting practice lines for the fourth tongue twister, consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

