

TYPES OF SENTENCES

A Match the simple sentences to create compound sentences.

It rained the whole day,

yet he became a famous writer.

Henry fed the dog,

so the picnic was canceled.

John did not study writing in college,

but I walked him.

B Match the clauses to create complex sentences.

Whenever he was lonely,

I like to wear my blue raincoat.

After the tornado hit,

I believed in fairy tales.

When I was younger,

Lance called his mother.

Whenever it rains,

there was very little left standing.

C Transform the following complex sentence into a compound sentence.

Because I had to rush to catch the train, I forgot to pack my toothbrush for our vacation.

