

IT'S ALL RELATIVE!

Fill in the blanks with the correct relative adverbs to complete the passage.

Last summer, my family and I went to the annual carnival, _____ (when/where) all the excitement and fun could be found. We arrived early in the morning, _____ (why/when) the lines were shorter, and the weather was cool.

This year, they announced that the carnival had a new roller coaster. This is _____ (why/when) I was very excited to go. Everyone was talking about it! We waited eagerly in line and finally got on the roller coaster.

After a thrilling experience, we headed to the food court, _____ (where/why) we enjoyed delicious cotton candy and corn dogs. It was the perfect time to relax and refuel.

As the sun began to set, we strolled through the carnival grounds, _____ (when/where) colorful lights illuminated the rides and games. This was the moment _____ (when/why) the atmosphere became even more magical.

In the end, we left the carnival with smiles on our faces, grateful for the place _____ (where/ why) we made wonderful memories as a family.

