Lily, a happy girl, brought her sparkly lunchbox to school. But, oh dear! When it was time for lunch, Lily couldn't find her lunchbox. She felt a little sad and searched her classroom. Lily's friends saw this and said, "Let's help her!"

They all looked around the schoolyard and cafeteria. After a bit, Lily's friend Emma found the lunchbox by the swings. It had rolled away, you see! Lily was very happy and said a big thank you to all her friends.
