

HUNT FOR THE ELEMENTS

Read the poem and identify the literary devices. Use yellow to underline alliteration, blue to underline repetition, and green to underline rhyming pairs wherever you find them in the poem.

On A Sunny Day

Silly Sally sailed on a sunny day,
Skipping and singing, come what may.
Giggling and grinning, she gathered
gumdrops,
Gobbling them up, never wanting to stop.

Silly Sally sailed on a sunny day,
Searching for treasures along the bay.
With every step, she sang her song,
Seeking adventures all day long.

Silly Sally sailed on a sunny day,
Spreading smiles in her playful way.
So let's join her, one and all,
Sailing with laughter, having a ball!
