

IDIOM, PROVERB, OR ADAGE?

Spot the idiom, proverb, or adage used in the sentence. Write the name of the expression in the space provided.

1 Even though the math test was tough, I had to bite the bullet and do my best.

-----

2 I wanted to play my new video game and did not want to do chores. My dad reminded me that I can't have my cake and eat it too. I needed to choose one.

-----

3 Instead of describing the amazing view, I showed my friends a picture. After all, a picture is worth a thousand words.

-----

4 Visiting a new country, we decided to follow the local customs and traditions—when in Rome, do as the Romans do.

-----

5 Max was caught red-handed eating cookies before dinner. He had crumbs all over his face.

-----

