

It's Time for a Surprise!

Reading: Sequencing

Read the story. Complete the graphic organizer that follows.

A Surprise for Charlie Story by Mick Manning

Max's family is having a special party for his new brother, Charlie. Max's mommy says, "I'm so proud, I could invite the whole world!" Max has an idea—a surprise for Charlie. He brings out his crayons. That afternoon, the doorbell rings. Max's mommy is surprised to see all the neighbors standing at the door with gifts and treats. One lady shows her an invitation written in crayon: "Please come to Charlie's party at 3 o'clock." Max's daddy asks, "Did you invite all of these people, Max?" "I wanted them to meet Charlie!" says Max.

Think of the order of events from the story. Fill the graphic organizer and summarize the story in the correct sequence.

First...

Next...

Then...

Finally...

