

CORRELATIVE CONJUNCTIONS

Circle all the correlative conjunctions in the sentences given below.

- A Mary is both intelligent and beautiful.
- B I will either go skiing or watch a movie at home.
- C We would rather go to the beach than go shopping.
- D He is not only good at singing but also at playing the guitar.
- E Whether they are at home or outside, I will be giving a surprise to my friends.
- F Cathy said she neither wants to eat ice cream nor a cake.
- G It is such a tiny house that only two people can live there.
- H Neither the sun nor the moon could be seen in the cloudy sky.
- I Both my sister and my brother enjoy playing soccer.
- J Either you study hard or you fail the exam.
- K Not only did he write a book, but he also composed the music for it.
- L Whether it's hot or cold, I always enjoy ice cream.

