TWO PALS

There were two pals who lived in a forest: Benny the Bear and Sammy the Squirrel. Benny was big and liked quiet naps, while Sammy was small and loved playing and chattering. One day, it started raining heavily. Benny decided to stay in, but Sammy wanted to go out and jump in the puddles. When the rain stopped, Benny found Sammy on a branch with a leaf umbrella. They laughed, realizing that even though they were different, they made the best of friends.
