

LET'S SEQUENCE IT

Number each sentence to put the events of the story in the correct sequence.

One morning, Little Red Riding Hood's mother asked her to visit her ill grandmother.
Little Red Riding Hood told the wolf where she was going.
There was once a sweet little girl who lived with her father and mother in a pretty little cottage.
Little Red Riding Hood set off to visit her grandmother, but soon she wandered from her path. She was stooping to pick a flower when she heard the growl of a great big wolf.
The wolf reached the cottage before Little Red Riding Hood and pretended to be her grandma. He attacked Little Red Riding Hood.
Her grandmother had once given her a red cloak with a hood that she always wore, so people called her Little Red Riding Hood.
The hunter heard Little Red Riding Hood's cry and killed the fox.

