

STORY AND ITS EVENTS!

Read the story carefully, then answer the questions.

Ben is an excellent athlete. He practices with his school coach every day. The coach believed that Ben would win a gold medal in the school race. Suddenly, Ben's sister fell sick, and he had to take care of her. He could not practice enough, and didn't want to compete. But his sister encouraged him to participate as he had been working hard. Ben felt motivated and participated in the school race. He came in first and won a big trophy.

1 What happens at the beginning of the story?

2 What happens in the middle of the story?

3 What happens at the end of the story?

