

INFER THAT!

Make an inference and answer the following riddles.

A. I wear a coat that's white as snow,
I listen to your heart's soft beat.
When you're sick, I should know,
Guess who I am and take a treat.

-----

B. With brushes and colors, I love to play,
Creating art in my own special way.
I paint pictures that are bright and bold,
What's my job? Can my work be sold?

-----

C. With a camera in hand, I roam around,
Capturing moments without a sound.
From sunsets to smiles, I see it all,
What's my job? Can you recall?

-----

D. In a room full of desks and books so neat,
I teach young minds to be complete.
From letters to numbers, I'm here to show,
What's my job? Do you know?

-----

E. In a kitchen warm, where things bake,
I mix and stir and make a cake.
Surrounded by pies to bread, I must be . . .
Go on, take a guess for me.

-----

