

MODAL AUXILIARIES

A Read the sentences and add the appropriate modal verb.

1. You look sick, you _____ see a doctor.
2. I _____ have to go to the mechanic tomorrow.
3. Chandler _____ always fall off of his bike when he was 10.
4. Monica _____ finish the whole book in a day.
5. Deepak _____ complete his assignment before tomorrow morning.

B Choose the correct mood for the sentence.

1. You must leave the classroom. (request, order)
2. She should pay her bills by the end of this week. (advice, prediction)
3. You may enter the lab. (formal permission, obligation)
4. I will definitely go to the park. (prediction, possibility)

C Find the error in the sentence and rewrite it correctly.

1. She will eat the whole tub of ice cream alone when she was 10.

2. You might stop at the traffic signal.

3. You can work hard if you want to achieve your goal.

