

MATCH THE MEANING

Read the text and its inference carefully. Match it correctly.

Joy and Jack have collected some scissors, glue, pens, glitter, and tape.

Emma looked for her toothbrush, pajamas, teddy bear, and a book. Her bag was almost packed.

The phone rang and Lily picked it up. She began smiling ear to ear. She could barely stand still as she was hopping on her feet.

The TV displayed images of snowflakes. School has declared a holiday. My mother brought out a box of cocoa.

It is winter.

She heard the news that her grandparents were coming to visit her.

They are ready to begin work on their class project.

She is preparing for a sleepover.

