Dearest Mom

It's another day sailing on the Golden Jewel? I can't wait to step on dry land again. Can you believe it's been almost three months. Blimey?

I tell ya, sometimes I'm not too sure about my shipmates? They can be very!!! exceptional! Would you like to hear about them. First Mate Exclamation Point likes to see how far he can throw swords into the ocean?! The rest of the crew has resorted to hiding the remaining blades? Just yesterday I had to say to him, "No? You cannot have my sword? Do you think they grow on trees."

Captain Period's favorite activity is seeing how fast he can spin the ship's wheel, every day??? all the time? spinning the boat round and round, and. It's no wonder I am seasick all the time! I can never find the cabin boy, Question Mark! What is he up to now. Wait!!! What in the world. There he is swinging from the ship's sail.

One thing is for sure? It's never dull around here?! It's the pirate's life for me.
