

INTERESTING SENSORY DETAILS

Spot the sentence with sensory details that makes it more interesting.

- A. She went to the megastore to get bananas.
- B. The sweet scent of the ripe bananas attracted her to them.
- C. The storekeeper lifted the box to give her a helping hand.
- D. She left the car keys inside the car.

- A. I bought a pair of mittens in winter.
- B. There were other colours available in the store.
- C. They feel so fluffy and soft on my skin.
- D. I wear them regularly these days.

- A. We called the ambulance to help them out.
- B. Both the drivers got injured in the accident.
- C. The never ending noisy chatter made our ears hurt.
- D. The car crash outside my house did not let us sleep.

- A. The giant green snake curled up near my almirah.
- B. I was too scared to call my parents.
- C. My sister was busy doing her homework in the other room.
- D. I took the baseball bat in my hand.

