

SPOT THE MODAL AUXILIARIES

A Read the paragraph below and underline the modals.

In the morning, I can hear the birds singing outside my window. They might be saying, "Good morning!" I should get up and join them. Today, I will help my mom in the garden. We must plant colorful flowers. After that, we can sit and watch the butterflies. I can't wait for my little sister to see them too. We may have a picnic in the backyard and share yummy sandwiches. It will be a fantastic day!

B Read the sentences and tick the one using modals correctly.

1. Will you play with me?

May you play with me?

2. I would play the piano every day back in school.

I should play the piano every day back in school.

3. Should you pass me the peas, please?

Could you pass me the peas, please?

4. She will dance very well when she was younger.

She could dance very well when she was younger.

