

SPOT THE MYSTERY!

Read the following stories and choose which ones are mysteries.

In the small town of Rivertown, residents wake up to find graffiti sprayed across the town hall building, sparking concern among locals. The mayor calls for an emergency meeting to address the vandalism.

In the bustling city of Metroville, construction workers begin repaving a busy street to improve traffic flow. Commuters adjust their routes accordingly, anticipating smoother journeys to work.

In the peaceful suburb of Pinecrest, families gather at the community center for a summer barbecue. They enjoy games, music, and delicious food under the warm sun.

At the annual science fair in Oakwood Elementary School, a prized trophy awarded to the winning team mysteriously disappears overnight. Students and teachers are baffled by its sudden disappearance and launch an investigation.

In the coastal town of Seaview Harbor, families gather for a beach cleanup event organized by the local environmental group. Armed with gloves and trash bags, volunteers comb the sandy shores, collecting litter and debris to protect the marine ecosystem.

At the prestigious art gallery in downtown Crescent City, a renowned painting by a famous artist goes missing overnight. The gallery owner, Ms. Harper, is distraught as she discovers the empty frame hanging on the wall the next morning. Security footage reveals a shadowy figure entering the gallery during the late hours.

At the annual Spring Festival in Bloomfield Park, the aroma of freshly popped popcorn fills the air as children laugh and play games. Families stroll through rows of colorful booths, admiring handmade crafts and sampling delicious treats from local vendors.

In the bustling business district of Silverton City, the CEO of a prominent tech company reports a security breach in their headquarters. Confidential data and prototypes of upcoming products vanish from the highly secure research and development lab overnight.

