

SYNONYMS & ANTONYMS

Select the word that most closely matches the underlined word in the sentence. Use the antonym in orange as a clue.

A. We thought it was a brilliant idea, but our teacher thought it was ordinary.

- special       loud       common       happy

B. Rather than a scowl, Dad had a huge smile on his face.

- frown       grin       laugh       upset

C. Unlike my parents, who love classical music, I detest it.

- like       hate       disown       listen

D. The cheerful children frolicked in the park, while their gloomy neighbors sulked indoors.

- enjoy       sad       close       bored

E. It took me two hours to clean the backyard after the windstorm left it in complete disarray.

- disorder       useful       tidy       broken

