

SUBJECT AND PREDICATE PRACTICE

Circle the subject and underline the predicate in the sentence.

1

The majestic oak tree with its twisted branches stood tall in the center of the forest.

2

Despite the late hour, I couldn't put down the thrilling book I was reading until I reached the last page.

3

The intricate melody composed by Mozart captivated the audience at the concert hall.

4

The elaborate feast prepared by the chefs left the guests speechless with delight.

5

The shimmering stars twinkled in the night sky, casting a soft glow over the sleeping town.

6

The ancient ruins hidden deep in the jungle fascinated the archeologists.

