

CHAPTER, STANZA, SCENE

1. Solve these riddles and identify the following as: paragraph, chapter, stanza, or scene.

A. I am a group of lines; you can find me in poems. I usually have words that rhyme, what is my name?	_____
B. A group of sentences come together to make me. Who might I be?	_____
C. I divide a book into different parts. In some books, I am plenty, in some, not as many. Can you name me quickly?	_____
D. You find me in all the movies and plays, in me events happen. If you don't put me in the correct order, the story loses its way. Who am I?	_____

2. Put a tick against the correct statements and a cross against the statements that are incorrect.

A. Books can have only one chapter.
B. A stanza is a group of words in a poem.
C. There are multiple scenes in a movie.
D. A paragraph is the name of a chapter.

