

WHAT CAN YOU INFER?

Read the passage carefully.

After finishing her lunch, Riley went shopping. She was joyfully collecting all the ingredients to make her special dish for her brother's party the next day; he was about to turn five. She began by moving to the dairy aisle, where all the dairy products were kept. She placed a carton of eggs and a gallon of milk in her cart and then looked for her brother's favorite cocoa powder. She bought a candle in the shape of the number 5, a box of candies, and a pack of balloons. Finally, she bought some flour and an oven mitt.
