Read the story given below answer the questions that follow.

Sunday mornings in the Johnson household were always special. The aroma of pancakes and the sound of laughter filled the air as the family gathered in the kitchen. Dad flipped pancakes on the griddle, while Mom set the table with plates and syrup. The children, Emily and Jake, eagerly awaited their favorite breakfast.

After a delightful morning feast, the family decided to spend the day at a nearby park. The sun beamed down as they strolled along the winding paths, sharing stories and enjoying the simple pleasures of each other's company. Laughter echoed as they played Frisbee on the lush green grass, creating cherished memories that would last a lifetime.
