

WHAT'S THE WORD?

Select the correct word between the two commonly confused words in each sentence.

1 Robert and Nina are/our over the moon today.

2 After all, it is there/their first New Year's party together.

3 Everyone is invited accept/except the grinch.

4 He was the one responsible for breaking/braking their party lights.

5 He should have listened to my advise/advice and stayed away from the lights.

