

3-Digit Dividend Riddles

Find the quotient and remainder when the greatest 3-digit number is divided by 11.

$$\boxed{} \div \boxed{} = \boxed{} \text{ R } \boxed{}$$

Find the quotient and remainder when the smallest 3-digit number is divided by 13.

$$\boxed{} \div \boxed{} = \boxed{} \text{ R } \boxed{}$$

Find the quotient and remainder when the greatest 3-digit number is divided by the double of the smallest 2-digit number.

$$\boxed{} \div \boxed{} = \boxed{} \text{ R } \boxed{}$$

Find the quotient and remainder when the greatest 3-digit number is divided by the half of the smallest 3-digit number.

$$\boxed{} \div \boxed{} = \boxed{} \text{ R } \boxed{}$$

