

Travel Addition

Solve the following word problems.

- 1 If a bus travels 3,000 miles to New York and then 2,000 miles to Chicago, how many miles does it travel in total?

- 2 Sarah's journey to Australia was 6,000 miles. She then traveled to New Zealand which was another 1,500 miles. How many miles did she travel altogether?

- 3 A train travels 4,500 miles to Paris and then 2,500 miles to Moscow. How many miles does it travel in total?

- 4 A cyclist rode 2,500 miles for a competition. He then rode another 5,500 miles for training. How many miles did he ride in total?

- 5 A car drives 3,500 miles to Los Angeles and then 1,500 miles to San Francisco. How many miles does it drive in total?

- 6 A travel agency organized two trips. The first trip covered a distance of 4,000 miles and the second trip covered a distance of 5,000 miles. What was the total distance covered in both trips?

- 7 A bicycle rides 1,000 miles to Amsterdam and then 2,000 miles to Brussels. How many miles does it ride in total?

