

NAME _____

Color & Write the Expression

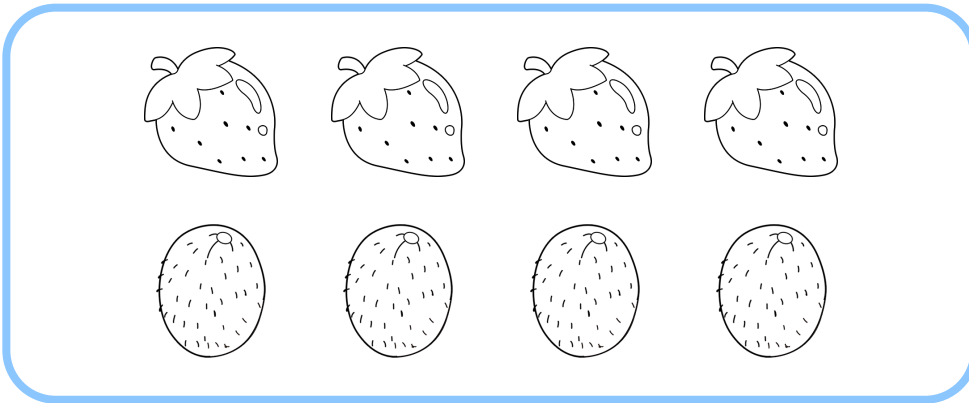

Color different types of fruits and write an addition expression.

A rounded rectangular box containing two rows of fruit illustrations. The top row has four strawberries. The bottom row has two strawberries followed by two oranges.

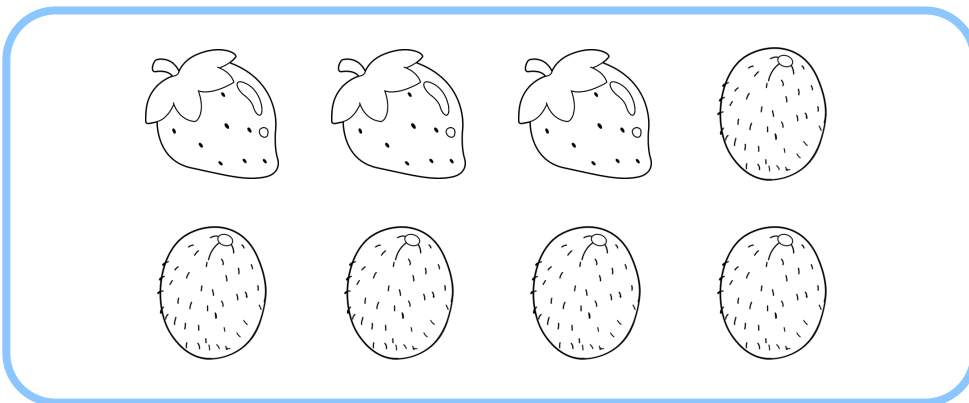

An empty rounded rectangular box intended for the student to write an addition expression based on the fruit counts in the adjacent box.

A rounded rectangular box containing two rows of fruit illustrations. The top row has four strawberries. The bottom row has four oranges.

An empty rounded rectangular box intended for the student to write an addition expression based on the fruit counts in the adjacent box.

A rounded rectangular box containing two rows of fruit illustrations. The top row has three strawberries followed by one orange. The bottom row has five oranges.

An empty rounded rectangular box intended for the student to write an addition expression based on the fruit counts in the adjacent box.

