Create Your Own Story

Write your own addition story. Write an equation to solve it. You may use any of the following objects to create your story. Write your own addition story. Write an equation to solve it. You may use any of the following objects to create your story.